

STABBED WIFE AND SLASHED HIMSELF

Philadelphia Ends Domestic Row with Murder and Suicide Attempt.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12.—John Meyers ended a series of domestic quarrels to-day by driving a table knife four times into the breast of his wife, Mary, and then cutting his throat with the same weapon. Meyers was driving in the Episcopal Hospital, while the woman is in a critical condition at the home of the couple, No. 2115 Auburn street, where the tragedy occurred.
Magistrate Wagner has an ante-mortem statement made by the woman, wherein she imputes the act of her husband to ungovernable rage. Meyers was conscious when he reached the hospital, but was too weak to speak.
From neighbors the police learned that the Meyers quarrelled frequently, and early this morning angry voices were heard in their home. No attention was paid to the disturbance until a cry of "Murder!" startled the house. One of the neighbors ran to the Meyers apartment and found the man and his wife lying on the floor covered with blood.

Evening Up.
(From the Washington Star.)
"What do you think of these investigations?"
"Well," answered the life-insurance collector, "it shows how things even up.
The directors are now getting some of the sarcasm and abuse that we agents used to have to stand."
